Wm. DeSiero On Way To Surgical Recovery

William T. DeSiero, assistant professor of Sociology and Political Science and faculty advisor to THE SCRIBE, Kappa Beta Rho, and many other organizations, is recuperating from an operation at Bridgeport Hospital.

Mr. DeSiero is expected to be back at his teaching position in about one week.

Two - Way Stretch

Girdles, Dickason Shape Thunder

By Marlene Fanta

Campus Thunder may be a skeleton now, but with our own Dionysus, Al Dickason, the Danse Macabre of the present will blossom into the juicy Follies of November.

The skeptics that visit far-away friends on Campus Thunder week-end and light their cigars with that Student Activity ticket should be reminded that there's more to rehearsals than Ben-Gay can cure.

Before rehearsals can begin, a cast must be chosen. In all sincerity, some requirements must be met. Each member of the cast must have a certain stage presence, consisting of a sort of inspiring personality, and must also be tall enough to be seen over the footlights. Absolutely! no centerians have been given dancing parts this year.

Last Wednesday, the first meeting of the cast took place at the Little Theater and featured Marguerite Scott with her candid tape measure. This may account for a sudden boost in the sale of Treo Corsets, but whether the costumes fit or not, they will dazzle even the most sophisticated audience.

Prizes Given To Deserving UB Students

By Myra Seide

Several scholarships have been established to aid deserving students at UB who need financial help. If you believe you can qualify for a prize, contact Student Personnel, second floor of Howland Hall.

If you are a major in history or political science see Prof. Chamberlain or Dr. Roucek for information on the Mary Silliman Chapter of DAR cash prize, which is awarded to a senior at June Commencement.

The Faculty Women's Club of UB awards the $100 Helen M. Scurr Scholarship to help a deserving girl in her senior year.

The General Silliman Chapter DAR helps a senior each year to complete his major in history.

Miss Jesse Mills gives $100 each year to a deserving UB student who is the child of the Froebel Normal School.

Albert C. Mizzy makes a substantial loan to help a dental hygiene student finish her last year in the Fones School of Dental Hygiene.

Campus Sees New Group Picked To Raise Spirit

By Vic Muniec

Carl D. Weinstein, a transfer student from UConn has been elected chairman of the Student Spirit Committee, organized on the UB campus to foster interest in the athletic activities of University teams.

Dr. Juano Hernandez, who will give readings from Shakespeare in Carlson Lecture Hall on Tuesday.

Puerto Rican Prof. To Speak At Tech Convo

By Beth Drexler

Juano Hernandez, whose voice has been chosen as one of the four best on radio, will be guest speaker at UB's next convocation, on Tuesday, at 4 P. M. in Carlson Lecture Hall.

Dr. Hernandez, professor of English at the University of Puerto Rico, will deliver several "Readings from Shakespeare". He has been touring the United States reading these selections, and recently gave his own one-man adaptation of "Othello" at the Belmont Theatre in New York.

Received Honorary Degree

Born in San Juan, Puerto Rico, in 1901, Dr. Hernandez had no formal education, but worked his way up to receive an honorary Doctorate of Fine Arts degree from the University of Puerto Rico.

Dr. Hernandez has had a most versatile career on the stage and in the movies, as well as in radio. His varied talents as vaudeville acrobat, musician, singer, actor and director have offered him many opportunities in the theatre.

When he came to the United States some 40 years ago, Dr. Hernandez was somewhat of a "carnival jack-of-all-trades". He went from carnival player to acrobat, after which he finally settled in New York as an actor.

In Many Shows

Broadway shows in which Dr. Hernandez has since been featured include: Showboat, Blackbirds, Ballyhoo, Golden Dawn, Strange Fruit, The Patriots, Anna Lucasta and Set My People Free.

From Broadway, Juano Hernandez went on to Hollywood, where he had feature roles in such motion pictures as "The Sign of the Cross" and "The Sign of the Cross" (continued on page 4)

NSA Officers Appointed At Council Meeting

By Katie Boyhan

At the regular meeting of Student Council held this week, the following students were appointed to the NSA Campus Commission: Vic Muniec, Charles Matt, Danny Leeson, Harvey Seltzer, Gary Singer and Dick Ellis.

A committee, made up of Ginny Tennant, Ronnie Brandenburg and Dick Ellis, was chosen to seek students to work on the Hazen Foundation Committee.

The Council has received sixteen applications from students who wish to serve on the Alumni Hall Board of Directors. These applications will be reviewed this week and voted upon at the next meeting.

The budget for student activity allocations was accepted by Council, and it was recommended that organizations keep a record of their expenses for future requests.

Resignations were accepted from Barbara Kelley and Bob Flynn. Danny Leeson was given a leave of absence because of a class conflict during the time of Council meetings.

Two Pages of Voting Information Inside

In an effort to get out as many eligible UBites as possible to vote in the coming elections, THE SCRIBE has devoted a two-page section of this week's issue to show the student body just who is running for what public office and how to vote for the candidate of their choice.

Working on the assumption that perhaps many students and townspeople alike have not thoroughly been informed of the football games, the committee will seek to publicize the contests through the media of radio, newspapers, posters, handbills, pep rallies and motorcades.

Last week, the committee distributed handbills describing the route to the Adelphi vs Bridgeport contest in Long Island, and more than 100 UB students made the long trip to see the game.

Blaring loudspeakers under the direction of the Student Spirit Committee directed their raucous voices through classroom windows yesterday and today and will continue to urge students to come to the New Haven contest on Saturday.

Activity stimulated by New Haven players hung in effigy, will reach its peak in a monster pep rally sendoff for the football squad Saturday evening, starting at 6:30, to be followed by a motorcade of all students going to the game at 7:15 P. M.

Chairmen of various committees are Al Lepow, coordinator; Vic Muniec, publicity; Mickey Vail, posters; Dodo Bowden, leaflets; Pat Lait, art; Ron Brandenburg, public relations; Peg McMahon, contact; Judy Oliner, volunteers; Barbara Holland and Harvey Seltzer, mimeograph and write-up.

Draft Deferment Blanks Available

Application blanks for the Selective Service College Qualification Tests to be given on Dec. 4, 1952 and April 23, 1953 can be obtained at the Student Personnel Office.

To be eligible to take the test, the applicant must:

- (1) be a Selective Service registrant who intends to request occupational deferment as a student;
- (2) satisfactorily pursuing a full full-time college course, undergraduate or graduate, leading to a degree (the applicant need not be in a four-year college, but his entire course of study must be satisfactory for transfer of credits to a degree-granting institution);
- (3) not previously have taken the test.

If You Don't Register

It's The Law, Bub

According to state electoral laws, there are four instances in which citizens of the State of Connecticut must register to vote.

First of all, all persons just turning 21 must register. This they do with their city registrar, since that officer has the legal power to make voters.

Second, persons who failed to vote in the previous three consecutive elections, state or national, are required to register again in order to use their prerogative. In other words, even though they may be registered before, their apathy during three consecutive elections necessitates that they petition to be made voters all over again.

Third, new residents of the state must also register before voting.

Fourth, all persons who have never registered before for any reason, must do so before they can cast their ballots.

Once a person has been made a voter, he can use his privilege without having to register for each individual election unless, of course, he permits three consecutive elections to pass without voting.

Another way of losing the voting privilege is to establish residence in another state.

IN THE RING

The following is a list of the candidates of both major parties in the state and national elections to be held on Nov. 4.

Position	Republican	Democrat
President	Eisenhower	Stevenson
Vice-president	Nixon	Sparkman
Four year senate seat	Purtell 	Benton **
Six year senate seat	Bush	Ribicoff ***
Representative	Morano *	Lyford
Congressman-at-large	Sadlak *	Pribyson

* Incumbents for same office

 Incumbent senators from State of Conn.

 Congressman now running for U. S. Senate

Saturday Last Day For Voters To Sign

FAIRFIELD

"For goodness' sake, for the sake of our boys in Korea, and for the sake of good government, get out and vote!"

These were the words of John McCarthy, Ass't. Deputy to the Registrar of Voters of the town of Fairfield.

Voters will be made Saturday. A special period from 9 to 11 A. M. on Nov. 3 will also be held in the Town Hall where new voters will be made from those persons who became 21 after the last registration date.

Those persons who have established residence in Fairfield for six months and those who have recently been residents of Conn. for one year will also be made voters on Nov. 3.

The voters of Fairfield will elect two state representatives, 18 justices of the peace and a state senator. They will also help elect a President of the United States and vice president as well as two senators, one congressman and one congressman-at-large.

STRATFORD

Voters will be made between the hours of 9 A. M. and 8 P. M. at Room 207 of the Stratford Town Hall on Saturday.

There will also be a period from 9 A. M. until noon on Nov. 3 when voters will be made from those persons who turned 21 after the last registration day, those persons who have established residence in Stratford for the past 6 months and those who have established state residency for a period of one year.

Stratfordites will be able to vote for two state representatives and 22 justices of the peace as well as one state senator, two U. S. senators, one congressman, one congressman-at-large, and, of course, presidential electors.

"Each voter in America has the power to bring good government to his city, state and nation. No man should abuse this privilege. Each man should use it and vote," stated Stephen H. Lucas and Perry V. Hyslop, Registrars of voters for the Town of Stratford.

BRIDGEPORT

In order to vote in Bridgeport, one must be a citizen of the United States, a resident of Bridgeport for six months, a resident of the state of Connecticut for one year, over the age of 21, and must appear before the Board of Selectmen for the City of Bridgeport, third floor of City Hall, between now and Saturday, from 9 A. M. to 8 P. M.

The following offices will be voted upon on Nov. 4:

One President and Vice-President of the United States, U. S. Senator for a six year term, U. S. Senator for a four year term (to fill the place of the deceased Senator Brien McMahon), Congressman-at-large, Congressman for the Fourth Congressional District.

In the local elections, three representatives for the State Senate, two representatives for the City Senate, three members of the Board of Selectmen, 27 Justices of the Peace and one local member of the Bridgeport Board of Education will be elected.

The Board of Selectmen will have special two-hour daily sessions until Election Day so that people who become eligible after the Oct. 18 deadline, may take advantage of the election.

There will be demonstrations on how to use the voting machines in all of the 22 polling places on Oct. 23, 24 and 25 from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M. For further information you may contact Mr. McPadden, Deputy Registrar of Voters at Bridgeport 3-2483.

How They Qualify:

GOP Gains Top Position On Machine

Due to the victory of Gov. John Davis Lodge in the 1950 State election, the Republican party rates the top lever in the state's voting machine.

The Democratic party's list of candidates holds the second row in Bridgeport, Stratford and Fairfield.

The Socialist party has its office seekers on the third row in the Bridgeport voting machines but the Independent Republicans hold down the third notch in Stratford and Fairfield while they hold the number five spot in Bridgeport.

The Progressive party will hold fourth spot in the Bridgeport booths.

Fairfield and Stratford voting officials are uncertain whether the Progressives will be on their ballot.

----- Neither Will Your Vote

Candidates' Background

World War II, he was engaged by the Navy for a number of years in the capacity of adviser, adjuster and spokesman.

John Sparkman — U. S. Senator from Alabama, was born on Dec. 20, 1899, near Hartselle Ala.; received his under-graduate degree in 1921, an LL.B. in 1923 and an A. M. in 1924; practiced law in Huntsville, Ala.; in 1946 was chosen to fill the unexpired term of the late Senator John H. Bankhead; then served as a delegate to the United Nations General Assembly.

Senator William Benton — was born in Minneapolis, Minn., on April 1, 1900; attended Carleton College from 1917-1918; received his LL.D. at Yale in 1921; in 1924 founded the Benton & Bowles Advertising Agency; was associated with the State Department and in Foreign Affairs; was elected United States Senator from Conn. in 1949; following appointment fulfilling the term left vacant by Judge Raymond Bakwin.

Abraham Ribicoff — was born in New Britain and went to New York University for one year; in Chicago, during the depression, he spent part of his time selling slide fasteners; graduated the University of Chicago Law School cum laude; and went to the State Legislature in Hartford in 1941, was elected to Congress in the 1949 session and was appointed to the Foreign Affairs Committee to study European aid.

Joseph P. S. Senator William Benton and Press Secretary to Governor Bowles.

Elephant and Donkey Feud Atop Well Constructed Planks

The following is a resume of the political planks of the two major parties. In preparing these issues, THE SCRIBE has tried to present the topics in which we believe our readers are most interested. We have attempted to remain unbiased in this article.

REPUBLICANS

FOREIGN POLICY

The GOP promises to win the peace through collective security measures on a global basis and to "restore" U. S. prestige abroad. The Republicans charge that the Truman policy swings between "timid appeasement" and "reckless bluster."

NATIONAL DEFENSE

The Republican party promises to remedy a "disgracefully lagging" defense program with utmost speed — particularly air power.

SMALL BUSINESS

The Republicans claim that the present administration seeks the destruction of private enterprise. Once in power, the Republicans promise to lift "injurious" controls and end "tax abuses."

TAXATION

The Republicans, if elected, would, they claim, cut government spending, balance the budget and reduce taxes.

AGRICULTURE

The "Grand Old Party" promises a farm program free of "socialistic controls." They favor parity prices at the market place.

LABOR

The GOP favors retention of the Taft-Hartley Labor Act, with modifications.

NATURAL RESOURCES

The Republicans are advocates of a "full and orderly" program for the development and conservation of natural resources.

VETERANS

The Republicans are in favor of extending present benefits to Korean vets.

SOCIAL SECURITY

The Republican Party claims that they would, if elected, stop the inflation which is reducing buying power of those receiving social security benefits.

EDUCATION

The Republicans see this problem on the local and state levels.

CIVIL RIGHTS

The GOP favors federal action (which was not defined) to end discrimination against Negroes and other minority groups in hiring and firing of workers. Such action would be limited to states which did nothing.

The following are Republican planks not listed in the Democratic platform:

COMMUNISM

The GOP claims that the present administration has appeased Communism at home and abroad. They further promise to rid our government of disloyal persons.

PUBLIC WORKS AND WATER POLICY

The GOP favors "economically justifiable" public works and eventual local ownership of federally-sponsored water projects by local owners.

HEALTH

The GOP opposes Federal "bureaucratic dictation" of health programs.

CORRUPTION

The Republicans charge that the Truman administration has written a "sordid" record of fraud, bribery, graft, favoritism and influence-peddling.

PUBLIC LAND

The Republican Party would end "arbitrary bureaucratic practices" in the management of public lands.

CENSORSHIP

The GOP pledges itself not to infringe by censorship or gag on the right of people to know what their government is doing.

CIVIL SERVICE

The Republican Party condemns "flagrant violations" of the civil service merit system.

GOVERNMENT REORGANIZATION

The GOP pledges reorganization of government in line with the recommendations brought out by the Hoover Commission.

DEMOCRATS

FOREIGN POLICY

The Democratic Party promises to carry on with the policies set down during the Franklin Roosevelt and Harry Truman administration.

NATIONAL DEFENSE

The Democrats pledge themselves to stand "un equivocally" for "strong, balanced" defense forces for this country — land, sea and air.

SMALL BUSINESS

The Democratic Party urges laws designed to provide "favorable incentives" to the establishment and survival of independent businesses, especially through tax incentives.

TAXATION

The Democrats promise reductions, especially for lower-income people, as rapidly as defense requirements permit. They oppose a federal sales tax.

AGRICULTURE

The Democratic Party endorses the recent action of Congress boosting minimum price support levels for the next two years and promises price aid for commodities not now protected.

LABOR

The Democratic Party advocates repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act.

Hard Work, Sweat Got Voting News

These two pages of voting and political information were compiled by SCRIBE staff members, under the direction of News Editor Ron Gold.

The reporters have tried to present the information in a neutral manner. The material was checked by impartial staff members to protect this unbiased attitude.

The following staff members compiled the information: Steve Miller, Bob Paul, Carl Weinstein, Peggy McMahon and Vic Munier.

The SCRIBE would like to thank Prof. William Allen of the history department for his special assist on background material, rules and regulations and clarification of many problems connected with the presentation of this material.

We would also like to thank the voting officials and political workers of the area communities who have supplied us with the information contained herein.

We've done what we could. Now it's your job to protect your right to vote. Voting is a privilege worth fighting for.

NATURAL RESOURCES

The Democratic Party promises "redoubled" action to conserve and develop natural resources, including development of river basins for flood control, irrigation and generation of power.

VETERANS

The Democrats pledge improvements in benefits for veterans and their families.

SOCIAL SECURITY

The Democratic Party favors further strengthening of old age insurance, a stronger system of unemployment insurance and an improved program of aid to the blind, disabled and other less fortunate.

EDUCATION

The Democrats urge federal aid to state and local units for schools.

CIVIL RIGHTS

The Democratic Party favors federal legislation to wipe out racial discrimination. It declares that cooperative efforts of state and local government are required also.

Constructive Criticism

Just words? or did you recognize any truth in last week's editorial? The SCRIBE was not out to criticize. The SCRIBE wanted you to recognize a problem for which it believes there is a possible answer. We can not give an answer, but we suggest a way to find one. First, let us say that we were encouraged by the comment that has been aroused. But comment won't turn the tide.

In clarification, last week's article was not designed to place the blame on the shoulders of any particular group. . . nor was it meant as a boost for athletics. . . or student activities. . . or enrollment. . . or the SCRIBE. . . or anything but the overall survival of the College. This is a crusade. . . but not of one group against another. We must all get together, sit down and try to understand our problem and its aspects, then try to find possible answers.

We made a spot survey. We checked the Snack Bar every morning at 8 A. M. (before classes). The peak day was last Wednesday when we found nine customers. At high noon last Thursday, there were no more than 30 customers. As two of us waited for a bus on the same day (while UB cars passed us by) we counted no more than 13 students in any direction from our vantage point at Park and Park.

A freshman co-ed came to one of us yesterday and asked where is this "hot, heavy, varied and exciting social life I've heard about". We sat and told her of the peak years of '50-'51 and even of the fair '51-'52. Her comment. . . "this place is dead".

We have noticed a few other indications of the "creeping disease." We don't hear friendly "hello's" on the street anymore. We used to make it a point to know our neighbors and UB was "the friendliest campus in the world." Today, students walk to and from classes in cliques.

Remember the turnout at last month's "Football Hop"? What a crying shame. We are told that a town student can't walk into a dormitory and feel at home anymore. . . and that's a long shot from the once famed dormitory hospitality. To Bishop Hall Lounge used to go second honors to the Snack Bar. . . today, while classes are on it looks more like the reception room for a funeral parlor.

Probably the most striking example of the "creeping disease" may be seen on the students themselves. The campus used to be adorned with UB T and Sweat Shirts. UB seals sold like psych books. We can only guess that today students are ashamed to wear the Purple and White.

They don't even buy stickers for their cars or guards for their license plates. The worst indication of it all is shocking. We have to go back to '48-'49 before we can recall students "talk down UB." We always thought that was the last stop on any college bus. . . maybe it is.

We are dying. . . and some leaders have recognized it. But there has been no appreciable progress made. There seems to be two reasons for this stalemate: First, the students find that the best place to put the blame is with the administration. . . and they make the issue a question of money. . . they also close their minds and believe that students apathy is the only part of the problem. It seems to us that these approaches are not valid.

The students no more understand the why's and wherefore's of the University's fiscal policy. . . than the administration understands the feelings, motives and hopes of the students. The plan of action has been to set up sides and fight it out. . . students vs administration. This approach will not reverse the current.

No one group is to blame. . . likewise there is no one basic issue. . . nor should a basic cause or basic responsibility be our concern. We should be more interested in the end result. . . what's going to happen to UB. . . to repeat. . . less varsity sports. . . drops in enrollment. . . loss of potential endowments. . . cuts in staff and caliber of staff. . . cuts in student activities. . . poor regard by outside.s. . . the prestige of our jobs. . . our degrees. . . our Alma Mater.

The second error that seems to have held back progress has been one of organization. There have been a few courageous students, this year and last who have recognized the problem and have tried to bring it to light.

But, there have been six or seven such small, rather weak groups working separately and unable to accomplish much. . . gaining no understanding. . . and frustrated in their attempts because they were not understood. May we then repeat. . . ALL OF US are affected. . . it then seems logical that ALL OF US should do something about it. THEN HERE IS A PLAN.

We would like to see the students. . . in a representative fashion, the administration, in terms of several experts. . . the Board of Trustees. . . the Board of Associates. . . the Alumni Association. . . the Parents Association. . . faculty and staff. . . all of them together:

1. Recognize that there is a problem.
2. Define the problem.
3. Decide to do something about the problem.
4. Investigate it in terms of its many aspects.
5. Discuss possible resolution in terms of its many aspects.
6. Set up the mechanics for the resolution.
7. Follow through until UB is back on the road to a life-like atmosphere.

The SCRIBE Editorial Board proposes that the President and Vice President call a meeting of these people:

President of the University, Vice-President of the University, Director of Publicity and Development, Directors of Admissions, Student Activities and Alumni Relations, the University Business Manager, the Director of the Evening Division and the Chairman of the Athletic Policy Committee.

President, Vice-President and Treasurer of the Student Council, the President of the Interfraternity Council, the Chairman of the NSA, the Chairman of Social Activities and the Editor-in-Chief of the SCRIBE.

The Chairman and Treasurer of the Board of Trustees, the Chairman of the Financial Committee of the Board of Trustees, the President of the Board of Associates, the President of the Parent's Association, the President of the Alumni Association, the Alumni representative of the Board of Trustees, the Chairman of the Alumni Student Life Committee, the President of the Faculty Senate, the Chairman of the Faculty Committee of Student Life and the Faculty Adviser to the SCRIBE.

Before such a meeting is held, The SCRIBE in cooperation with all interested parties, will deliver to these people as much background material as available with regard to what we believe the problem. At this meeting these people will be asked to consider The SCRIBE SEVEN POINT PROGRAM.

Explanation

Last week we published an editorial entitled "Dopes Diary." It created quite a controversy. . . and a lot of misunderstanding. This week we would like to give an explanation of the editorial. . . and why we printed it.

We attempted to show, by a negative approach, the attitude that this so-called "dope" has toward college tradition, college spirit and interest in the forward progress of the University.

Apparently, we failed. Comment from the students seemed to indicate that the student body felt that The SCRIBE had written a shameful editorial, condemning principles that an intelligent college student stands for.

We realize, now that the editorial could have been misinterpreted, and has been. For this we are sorry.

Perhaps the integrity of the football team has been slandered. We didn't intend to give the editorial that connotation.

We did violate the University Universal English program in our choice of words. For our choice of words, we apologize.

However, one of the principle objectives of the editorial was accomplished. It stirred up interest. . . and discussion. . . and might lead to constructive action.

If constructive action does take place, we feel that we are again moving in the right direction and "Dopes Diary" has served a purpose.

Policy

Editorials contained herein are not the feeling of any one individual. They are the opinion of The SCRIBE, through its Editorial Board.

Before any editorial appears in these columns, it must pass by vote of the Editorial Board. If the vote is against the editorial, it will not be used or a different opinion will be taken. If the vote is favorable, the editorial will be printed.

Initialed editorials mean only that they were written by the individual. They need not be his ideas, nor ideals. It is simply a byline for a story written on assignment.

The above list is an impressive one. These are people to whom time is valuable. . . but whose advice, experience, background and position provide a potential for a "way back." We picture that each of these twenty-eight men can add insight and understanding to the problem. . . to the understanding of each group's problems. . . to dispelling misunderstandings and to providing the basis for a workable solution.

These people are experts. They know the facts. They know how to set up a program and how to make it work. With this they will be WORKING TOGETHER TOWARD A COMMON GOAL. It will not be faction against faction. . . but a sincere attempt to meet an imposing problem. . . A METHOD FOR SURVIVAL.

We understand that there is more to this than just calling a meeting. We understand that these people must be convinced that there is a problem. We understand that any possible solution will not be effected in one month or even in five months. But, because we understand something must be done. . . We appeal to the students to drop notes in the SCRIBE mail box (Cortright Hall) recording their comments on these editorials and their suggestions. We appeal to President Halsey and Dr. Littlefield to consider calling such a meeting. We do not think that we are radical, when all we ask is a lease on life.

Dear Editor - -

Wonju, Korea
Sept. 26, 1952

Hi Everybody -

One week to go and I'll be on my way from Korea to the good old USA and on my way out of the army. Expect to be back in New York around Election day.

I want to reserve six of the best seats for "Campus Thunder's" Saturday night performance. I'll pick them up at the Box Office. Will you please convey that message to the Office of Campus Productions.

I'm very grateful for receiving those most welcome issues of The SCRIBE which only arrived 2 or 3 months late but I was sure glad to read those choice little tidbits of information about some of the familiar names that I recognized. Also kept up on Alumni activities via mail from home. My folks would include the Alumni News Bulletins in their regular packages to me.

After only four months of civilian life after leaving Bridgeport in June 1950, I'm really anxious to return and get started all over again.

I'll see you all again soon.
Sincerely,
Lee Broadwin
CBA-50

Dear Editor -

I started to think about the various editorials published in last week's issue of The SCRIBE, especially "Dopes Diary" which tells us just what Mr. Average UBite's school spirit is.

Sure, we all know that he just doesn't have any! He won't go to the football games. He doesn't take part in any outside activities, etc. We all know that, Mr. Editor.

We also know that it's damn easy for you and everyone else to sit back and criticize our school spirit. But until you can come up with something constructive I suggest you "lay off."

Why don't you and your staff come up with some plan to bring more activities on campus instead of spending all your talents in criticism of our football team, fans, cheerleaders, etc.

Bob Unger
• Bob, we appreciate your comment. See editorial column. If you have any further suggestions, keep the letters coming! — Ed.

Inter-Hall Group Holds First Meet

By Dolores Correa

The Inter-Hall Council held its first meeting of the year last week under the direction of Frank LaGuisa, adviser to the Inter-Hall Committee.

It was decided that the plaque, which is awarded to the dormitory with the highest scholastic achievement, would be engraved after the two winners from last year are tabulated.

The council also scheduled the Hazen Foundation meetings for this semester.

Those attending the meeting were Ricky Heller and Judy Oliner, Linden Hall; Martha Kelly and Dot Seckler, Wistaria Hall; Joan Beaumont, Seaside Hall; Dolores Stichler and Dolores Correa, Southport Hall.

Also, Steve Gleha and Ira Cohen, Trumbull Hall; Ronnie Brandenburg, Waldemere Hall; Frank Sanchez, Park Hall; Brad Clough and George Rahnas, Marina Hall.

Efforts Well Rewarded

Dr. Hernandez' talents have by no means gone unnoticed. In addition to his radio awards, he has received various honors for his work in the theatre and movies.

In 1951, he won an award for the best supporting performance at the International Film Festival at Punta del Este, Uruguay. In the London Critics Contest in 1951, he received the award for best supporting player. In addition, Dr. Hernandez received third place in the voting in the New York Critics Award in 1949, which was won by Broderick Crawford.

The convocation program is being brought to UB under the joint efforts of the English and Sociology Departments.

Marina Open for Meetings

Marina Hall can be reserved by various campus clubs and fraternities provided that the dates requested do not conflict with those already on reserve.

Clearance must be made through Dr. Gilbert DeMar, residence councillor, and Brad Clough president of Marina Hall.

Organizational meetings may be held but parties, except for the Marina Hall party, will not be allowed.

New Haven Boldly Invades Candlelite

By Irving Sobolov

On Saturday evening the Purple Knights will be out once again to gain the first victory of the season, and upset the New Haven State Teacher's College gridiron squad.

Last Saturday the UB team fought hard with an Adelphi team through three scoreless periods before the Adelphi "11" could score. The first score came on a sustained drive and the second came as the result of a blocked punt in the end zone.

The UB defense was good throughout the game, but the lack of an offense on the part of UB spelled their fourth defeat by the score of 13-0.

The Purple and White has been the chief nemesis to the New Haven gridiron squad in their brief football history. In 1948 and 1949, the Purple Knights have spoiled perfect season records for the educators by respective scores of 13-7 and 6-0.

Coach "Kay" Kondradovich is seeking to revenge last years defeat, which was the worst suffered by a UB team, and possibly prevent the New Haven team from achieving their dream of a perfect season.

This season, the Educators have beaten Kutztown Teachers 13-12 and Champlain College 19-6 and are hoping to make UB number three. New Haven's Coach Dow has 22 lettermen from last year's team at his disposal. Among these are co-capt. Duce DeFrancisco and Joe Panico.

The Purple Knights have worked hard all week in preparation for Saturday night's rugged clash. The UB ground and air attack has been spark-plugged by two Central grads, Danny Nastasia and Eddie Boyle, both freshmen.

Johnny Anderson has done quite well for the UB squad with his "educated toe" and has kicked the Knights out of numerous predicaments.

SPA's Record Makes Them Team To Beat

By Mickey Vail

Intramural football got into full swing last week with a seven-game schedule. Several of the teams showed a lot of class, with SPA looking extremely good.

SPA took to the air to beat Trumbull Hall by a 13-0 count. Gus Seaman and Walt Levine were outstanding on both offense and defense all day.

Seaman scored on a pass from Levine early in the first quarter and the situation was reversed in the third quarter. Trumbull showed a good defense, but was unable to move against the larger fraternity team.

Wednesday saw a strong TS team defeat a surprising Park Hall running attack 19-12. Steve Michaels, Charlie Cellar and Dave Howard scored for the visitors, while Cliff Waldow and Mickey Vail went over for Park.

In the game that may well decide this year's champion, SPA swamped POC 35-12. SPA took an early lead that was never relinquished. Gus Seaman who scored twice, was once again the day's outstanding scorer.

SPA led at half time 14-0. A second half rally by the losers fell short at 14-12. From there on, it was all SPA, with Levine, Al Lepow and Dick LaBash scoring. POC's touchdowns were made by Walt Lombardo and Lou Radler.

Other scores: AGP 25 - Waldemere 6; POO 2 - Trumbull 0; APO 1 - KBR 0; TS 1 - KBR 0; Waldemere 0 - APO 0 (tie).

Standings of Top Five Teams:

Team	W	L	T	Pct.
SPA	2	0	0	1.000
TS	2	0	0	1.000
AGP	1	0	0	1.000
APO	1	0	0	1.000

Weinstein Takes Over Helm of Sports Staff

Carl Weinstein has replaced Al Lepow as SCRIBE Sports Editor, beginning with this issue.

Lepow resigned from The SCRIBE last week. He will continue to act as Sports Publicity Director for the University and Sports Editor for The WISTARIAN, UB's yearbook.

Weinstein, a transfer student from the University of Connecticut, was on the sports staff of the Connecticut Campus, UConn's thrice weekly newspaper. He has been elected as chairman of the newly formed Spirit Committee. For more on Carl, see Page 1.

Military Convo Tuesday, T-101

Herbert Hennessey, Sr., Deputy Director of Selective Service for Conn. and Col. Howard W. Davis, Chief of Manpower, will speak at the Military and Selective Service Convocation to be held Tuesday, at 10 A. M., in T101.

The purpose of the convocation is to explain the present situation regarding the securing of a commission in the armed forces, to discuss the students chances of being drafted and to explain why some students may receive a deferment, under the present situation.

Following the convocation, at 11:25 A. M., other members of the armed services representing all branches of military forces, will be available in adjoining rooms for personal interviews with students interested in further discussion of military opportunities.

Included in this discussion group are the Navy, Marine Corps, a representative of the Waves and other military officials.

This is an opportunity for University of Bridgeport students who fall under the Selective Service program, to find out exactly what the armed forces have to offer.

By Carl Weinstein

The question is no longer "To be or not to be", but it is now, what is wrong. What can be done? The goal of complete student participation has not been reached and the question is, why? This is the universal question at the University of Bridgeport. Why. Why aren't the students supporting the team.

Is it because the team isn't winning, or because the players don't care whether they have support or not? Do the students have to support a winning team in order to go to games? If they have to support a winning team then how can we get one? Is the coaching staff to blame? This is a question which hasn't been explored in the past, and which requires investigation.

It is not my ambition to reform the policy of the coaching staff, but to try and give constructive criticism, not only from myself, but from other members of the student body. Here is the plan that I am suggesting:

1. Let's stop yelling about school spirit and student support and do something about it. Actions always speak louder than words, but the words have flowed freely and nothing has been done.

2. Let's stop treating the football team like a group of social outcasts and try and meet and acquaint ourselves not only with the boys as personalities but with their problems as well. I am sure that if the members of the student body will encourage the team not only by attending the games, but by personal contact, it will be a great boost to the morale of the team.

3. Let the coaching staff make the necessary disciplinary action in order to keep the team in shape and to make the correct tactical moves on the field, at the games. Whether or not the coaching staff is doing this is a question that can only be answered by them.

4. Coordinate all plans of attack and have one team functioning together. Let's get out and support the team! See you at Candlelite, Saturday night.

With four weeks of the school year gone by, the basketball team has come back into athletic prominence. The first unofficial tryout of the basketball season was held on Wednesday afternoon at the Bridgeport Armory.

This year's squad will again have the able services of such outstanding performers as Gus Seaman, Dick LaBash, Lou Saccone, Ernie Amarel and Stan Silverberg.

These five constituted the nucleus of last year's squad and are expected to even surpass last year's record of 21-7.

The schedule has not been completed, but is expected to be finished by the end of this week. UB last year ranked behind such powerhouses as Boston College, Holy Cross, UConn and Yale. Coach Glines has some outstanding newcomers slated for action this year, but is still looking for all interested newcomers. Practice officially begins on Nov. 3.

The intra-mural program at UB has been handled very capably by Stan Silverberg. The top contender in the fraternity-dorm race is SPA, who last week annihilated the POC Wonder Boys by the score of 35-12.

The SPA team received enormous support in the line by Mom Tursky and boasted some fairly good ball players in the persons of Gus Seaman, Harvey Seltzer and Al Lepow.

William T. DeSiero, popular sociology and political science professor, was recently operated on in Bridgeport Hospital. The necessity for an operation came rather suddenly, and we were all shocked and surprised to hear this news.

Mr. DeSiero claims that although it has been called "corrosive", the coffee in the Snack Bar has not been a direct cause of his illness.

Speaking of the coffee in the Snack Bar brings another thought to mind. The Snack Bar is again open at night. The first weeks of school it closed at 3 P. M. Now UB students can get their coffee on campus until 9:30 P. M. Thanks to the administration for the re-opening.

SLX will hold its second semi-annual dinner-dance at the Little Hungary Restaurant (Where have I heard of that place before?) on Sunday evening. The boys expect a large turn-out of members, prospective pledges and friends.

After the last dinner SLX had there, the administration received good reports on the activities of these fellows. Keep up the fine works boys.

SOCIAL EVENTS. It seems as though everyone is having beer parties these days. From all the reports I have been hearing about the one ADO gave last week, it must have been quite a success.

AGP met at Lenny's Wagon Wheel the same night, not only to have a ball, but to renew old friendships with Lou and Joe Lenny. Most of their beer parties have been held there and this last one was so good that the AGP boys plan to have another affair there in the near future.

Along the same line of thought, the men of TS met last Friday night to complete plans for their dance tomorrow and partake of a little spiritual refreshment.

Popular place that it is, Lenny's was also the scene of a beer party held last Monday by POC fraternity. We had a DANDY time said Prexy Charlie Smith, evading the issue.

The DH girls are at it again. This time it was a fashion show held in Bishop Hall last week. Three of the girls modeled for the rest of POU.

I hear that the three who modeled did such a lovely job that Harry Conover flew in from New York with a contract clenched between his teeth and a hundred dollar bill in each hand.

ODDS AND ENDS. If there is anyone in school who is interested in Lady's Lingerie, there is one guy who can tell with authority and knowledge everything there is to know about this highly secretive and interesting subject. His name is Ronnie Mueller and he works in Warner Corset Co.

Send a card full of get-well wishes to Lee Carducci who was sent home last week, complaining of a fever, sore throat, headache, swollen glands and palpitations of the heart. Her address is Derby Turnpike, Orange, Conn.

From the office of Bob Heath comes word of the people who will run our Social Activities Committee this year. Bob Plotnick is Chairman, Dottie Marks is Treasurer and Irnie Thropp is Executive Secretary. This is the small but highly efficient group that runs all the school-sponsored dances, picnics and week-ends.

Due to an error on my part, it was reported in last week's SCRIBE that TE held a tea two weeks ago. In response to many requests, he is now known and realized by all those with sound minds and able bodies, that TE DID NOT have a tea or any other letter of the alphabet at Bishop Hall or any other building. Sorry girls. Those things happen, you know.

The lights are burning into the wee hours of the morning at the Little Theater these days as Campus Thunder gets into first gear. Many students and Alumni are hard at work getting the show under way.

"Al" Dickason has some job on his hands, but the sixth edition of Campus Thunder promises to be one of the best yet to emerge from the Little Theater.

Two weeks ago, an appeal for information appeared in this column, and I would like to thank those people who came and talked to me or left notes for me in the SCRIBE office.

I really appreciate this help, and the only thing I can say now is: Keep up the good work!

After looking out the window at this dark and sinister campus, I shall close with the words of that immortal poet, Thomas Edison. Quote Mr. Edison, "Let there be light". End of quote. End of column.

THE "WHO-FOR" INSTINCT

YOUNG MAN ENCOUNTERS YOUNG LADY WORKING WITH YARN AND NEEDLES:

"What's that you're doing?"

"Knitting."

"Knitting what?"

"Sox."

"Oh... who for?"

That almost instinctive "Who for?" is what takes the fancy. The general idea is that knitters are addicted to making others happy.

In simple truth, though, many a smart knitter hereabouts is indulging herself for a change... getting up a seven-day wardrobe of kitteny-soft sweaters, with a different color for every day of the week. The aim is still to please of course. And how it works!

The "who for" instinct would explain why your campus knitter favors fluffy, easy-to-handle "BOTANY" BRAND NO-DYE-LOT YARNS of 100% virgin wool. Knitting for others, you are especially careful to avoid streaking with jarring off-shades. And with "BOTANY" BRAND NO-DYE-LOT YARNS... YOU CAN MATCH ANY COLOR... ANY TIME... ANYWHERE.
